PLEASANT HILLS CWA

Our September meeting was held at the B & B in Henty, where we started the meeting with a minute's silence in memory of Queen Elizabeth II. After our meeting, we enjoyed a delicious lunch and a chat, relaxing a bit prior to the hectic week of Field Days. The 30th September was the end of the CWA Financial year and all reports for the various positions, were due.

It was decided that our theme for this year's Christmas Party gifts will be gold and silver colours, with recycled, regifted, or op shop purchases, as this idea created a lot of fun last year.

Bev Frohling is looking into a suitable venue for our Christmas Break-up.

Bev gave us some new information about recycling bottles, newspapers etc can be taken to the Recycle shop in Catherine Cres and another one in Central Albury run by disability workers.

Wendy has kindly been given a couple of beautiful dolls for us to raffle, so we thank the donor very much and will get it under way as a Christmas raffle.

The Riverina Group Conference will be held at Collingullie on Wednesday, 12th October, and we have several members attending.

Several Members are going on the Agricultural and Environmental bus trip to Yackandandah where they will be going to the Yak Creek Distillery, then Lunch at the Star Hotel before travelling to "The Out of Town Nursery and Humming Garden".

In the Land Cookery, we had Marble Jaffa Cake, which was won by Lyn J, second was Margaret H, and the Plain butter cake was won by Lyn Lieschke, 2nd Lyn J. Next meeting, we will have Gluten free whole orange cake (own recipe), almond bread (own recipe) and seeded biscuits, with the recipe supplied in the June journal.

The Field Days went off very well, with the largest representation of our members helping than we've had in a long time, and my grateful thanks to one and all for their help.

Members have been making sandwiches and slices for the Field Days for the CWA Stand in the Country Lifestyle Shed.

Nett and Kaye did a wonderful job of decorating the Stage, depicting 100 Years of CWA in the Country Lifestyle Pavilion, and our Fashion Parade of dresses over the past century drew a large crowd of spectators to each parade.

CWA State President, Mrs Joy Beames speaking from the Stage in our pavilion at Henty.

Thanks also to Judy Knoble for the amazing flower arrangements for the stage and also a few extras for our little table out the front of the stage.
 Kate Aldridge from Albury had iced 6 small mud cakes to demonstrate a new cake decorating pipe in the Country Lifestyle Shed at the Field Days which we then raffled for different charities over the three days, raising just under $800, of which; Prostate Cancer, Riverina Bluebell, Avondale Place Henty, and St John's Ambulance all benefitted from the proceeds.

We had a great supply of sandwiches, slices, and scones on hand at all times to offer everyone who came into our "Office".

The "Scone Challenge" between the Radio Stations is always a lot of fun. Mal Fowler, representing 2AY, was the best scone eater, chewing his way through 5 ½ in one minute.

Incidentally, scones were very popular at the Field Days, with around 50 dozen being sold over the three days.

Our next meeting will be our Annual Meeting and will be held in Albury – on Wednesday, 19th October, and we will be starting earlier than usual at 10am in our usual spot - please note that it is a week later because of the Group Conference being held on our normal day Wednesday, 19th October.

Wishing you all a wonderful break with your children and we will see you back here on Monday 10 October.

In September the children enjoyed cooking Chicken Stir Fry with Carrots and Broccoli grown in the garden.

They made a Cubby House of big foam blocks. There was also work to be done making a Construction Site with caution tape.

For Father's Day the Dads were spoilt with Chocolate Ball treats, a canvas painting and a funny quiz by the children in a decorative blue paper bag.

Pre-School will return on Tuesday 11th of October, open on Tuesdays and Wednesdays in Term 4.

Tennis Club

The new tennis season is almost upon us with the Hume Country assoc getting underway on 8th October. We're very excited that we will be back to having 3 teams again this year: sections 3a, 5 & 6 so thanks to Renae & Sarah for working hard to get that in place.

Also, very excited having 2 synthetic grass courts almost finished thanks to Lockhart Shire Council, not so excited that it's looking a little untidy at the moment. Will hopefully get that sorted over the next week in time for an open day during the 2nd week of the school holidays. Check our Facebook for updates on that.

We welcome Matt back for coaching on Friday nights during term 4 & again, we have great numbers for that.

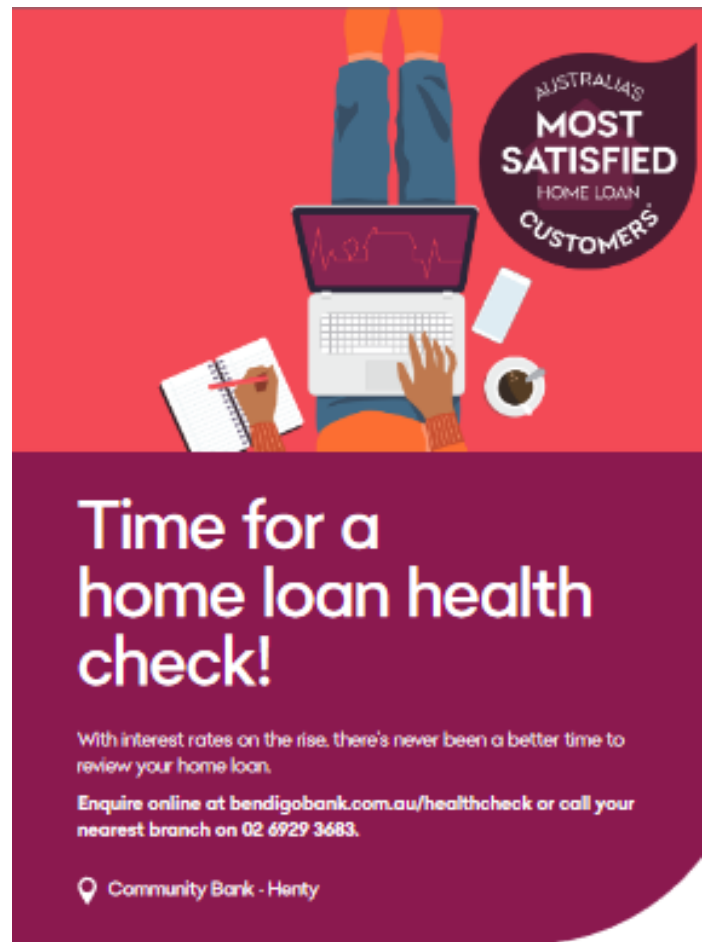

We always welcome new players so please let us know if you're interested.

Carol Smith.

Pleasant Hills Patchwork Group

We had lots of show and tell last month when Bev brought along her quilts to show us and worked on her crochet rug, welcome to Bev. The disappearing nine patches were appearing everywhere with four ladies working on them. We also had a Kaleidoscope started and other patchwork pieces finished. The binding on one was machine sewn with a decorative stitch instead for a different effect.

Our next meeting is Saturday 15th October, and it is a UFO, so come along and bring whatever you would like to continue working on or something you would like to start. BYO your lunch, sewing requisites and $6 for hall hire, and morning tea to share.

Hills History

Pleasant Hills' very own Queen.

The Henty Observer and Culcairn Shire Register, 20th May 1916 page 2.

Some days ago, after a social, it was mentioned that Pleasant Hills should have a queen, and Mrs Reg Browne took the matter up and worked very hard to bring it about even going as far as to provide the coronation robe and crown. There was a social last Wednesday evening, and it was arranged that the vote should be taken there. There were no queens appointed for particular industries or organisations, and it was more a vote for the favorite girl in Pleasant Hills than anything else. The voting was closed at 10 o'clock, and at supper the result was announced to be Elsie Knoble, 936, first; M Loyd, 656, second; and M Gale, third.

Mr Knoble was in the chair, and he called on Private Pilts to perform the crowning ceremony, which he did with great success. The amount of £26 was raised for the local returned soldiers' fund.

Albury Banner and Wodonga Express 25th November 1921, page 6.

The Literary Institute bazaar was held on Wednesday and Thursday, 16th, and 17th, and resulted in the greatest financial success of any public effort made in Pleasant Hills. The chief interest centred in the Queen competition, which aroused extraordinary interest and enthusiasm. The final count resulted as follows: -

Diggers' Queen, Miss Salie Sticker, 22,764; Band Queen, Miss Tilly Pumpa, 12,764; School of Arts Queen, Miss Elsie Harberecht, 6258; representing a total amount of £174/6/, certainly a wonderful result, speaking volumes for the magnificent effort of those who rallied to the support of each candidate. Amidst intense excitement the crowning ceremony was performed by Mr W S Browne, president, who, in a few well-chosen words, thanked the candidates for the splendid assistance rendered to the institution for their combined efforts.

The selection for the title of "Diggers' Queen" was most appropriate, as two of Miss Sticker's brothers served with the A.I.F, one making the supreme sacrifice, and the other suffering severe injuries. The returned men engaged in a friendly contest of rivalry with the supporters of other candidates, and a series of well-planned efforts by all concerned resulted in lifting the burden of debit from the building. The income from the stalls and side shows is expected to bring a grand total to nearly £250.

Miss Virgie Terlich Wins Pleasant Hills Queen Competition.

The most outstandingly successful function of the year was held at the Pleasant Hills Literary Institute when the splendid efforts of the various committees in the Queen competition which had been running for four months were brought to a conclusion at a crowning ball.

A crowd of between 300 and 400 dancers took to the floor at 8pm. Progress scores of the voting for the queens was continued until 9:45. At 10:30 counting had been completed and the stage was set for the coronation.

The herald was Ronald Wooden; the bishop Cr W K Day, of Lockhart, and the Lord Chancellor was Mr L Anderson. Guard of honour comprised Misses F. Klemke, J. Knox, I. Terlich, Mesdames Knoble, D. Joiner, W. Kohn, J. Lewington, L. Terlich, C. Joseph, L. Klemke, W. Manson and H. Schultz.

On being heralded and announced by the lord chancellor, the Town Queen (Miss Nola Gibson) preceded by her flower girls, entered the hall, and was presented to the bishop. The Sports Queen was (Miss Pearl Groch). After they were presented to the bishop, Cr J Lewington announced the amounts raised by each queen and her committee, the name of the winning queen, the Rural Queen (Miss Virgie Turlich). She was then announced by fanfare from the trumpeter. Miss Turlich wore a white figured satin gown trimmed with diamantes, a diamante coronet and white mittens. She also wore a blue silk train with silver and white trimmings.

When the Rural Queen was seated on the throne the lord chancellor unfurled the proclamation and read the first portion and called on the bishop to crown her and drape the glorious red velvet robe round her shoulders. This was a very impressive part of the ceremony. The queens and their maids then walked down the carpeted stairs where they were met by partners and a Coronation waltz was danced. The womenfolk of the guard of honour were also partnered and they danced the encore.

During the latter part of the evening a presentation ceremony took place. The chairman presented Mr Roy Gale (President of the Pleasant Hills Literary Institute) with a cheque for approximately £1000. The total raised during the competition was £911/1/6. Door takings at the ball were approximately £80. (The article went on to describe each dress of all those who were presented on the night.)
